THE BOARD GAME

Welcome to the Mantic Games Retailer Pledge,

As always, we are committed to the success of crowdfunded games both in the campaign and on retail shelves. As such, we are delighted to once again include a retailer pledge.

Starting from the 29th of August and until the campaign closes, retailers can jump on board the exciting Kickstarter campaign. The Retailer Pledge is a £129 deposit that can be redeemed against your final order. Please note the following:

- You must pledge using the email address associated with your store.
- Only confirmed retailers are eligible for the Retailer Pledge. To confirm your details please email the trade representative for your region:
  - Kyle.Przelenski@manticgames.com (North America and Canada)
  - Clive.stone@manticgames.com (UK)
  - Josh.Roberts@manticgames.com (Europe and Rest of the World)
- Please do not contact us with trade enquiries through Kickstarter Messages as we may miss your email.
- You are free to order the Mayhem or Armageddon editions of Worms: The Board Game in pack quantities of 3. For access to any other products released during the campaign, please discuss them with your trade representative.
- Normal retailer discounts will apply.
- A commitment deposit of £129 pledged during the course of the campaign is required to receive your order. You should select the Retailer Pledge option on the campaign page to ensure you receive the correct items.
- A signed agreement between Mantic Games and the respective retailer that sets out the above will be required before shipment. The remaining balance on your order will be due immediately before shipment.
- Please read the Worms: The Board Game Kickstarter page for details about the game.

Please use the email addresses above to contact your local Mantic Games trade representative if you have any questions about the retailer pledge. Once you've pledged, a member of our sales team will contact you after the campaign ends to confirm your order.

Best regards,

The Mantic Trade Sales Team
